THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese history, has been discontinued. The Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese history, has been discontinued. The Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese history, has been discontinued.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of literature on China, etc., and to give criticisms embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office."

The Correspondents column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, Hirth, and Hance, Professor Legge, and Messrs. Baller, Watterson, Stott, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Janse, and others. The Review is published weekly, and is sent free of charge to all contributors.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included, payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address: Messrs. G. H. M. & Co., China Mail Office.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"All our learned societies should subscribe to this excellent Review." — Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

"The China Review" is an excellent table of contents. — Central Empire.

"The Publications always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourably if not advantageously compared with preceding numbers." — Central Empire.

"This number contains several articles of interest and value." — North-China Herald.

"The present number of this periodical, which opens with a review of the Foreign Trade of China during 1880. This is rather a new departure for a publication which professes to be purely literary; but considering the comparatively small circulation it enjoys at present among the commercial communities of China, we hail the innovation as likely to recommend the Review to the notice of those who take an interest in few matters beyond mercantile pursuits." — North-China Herald.

"The China Review" for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Mr. E. H. Parker, on "The Annual Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most concise and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting." — North-China Herald.

"A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to peruse." — Overland Express.

"The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries." — North-China Herald.

Hongkong Rates of Postage.

(Revised January 1st, 1882.)

In the following Statements and Tables the Rates are given in cents, and are for Letters per half ounce, for Books and Patterns per two ounces.

Newspapers over four ounces in weight are charged as double, triple, &c., as the case may be, but such papers or packets of papers may be sent at Book Rate. The sender of any Registered Article may accompany it with a Return Receipt on paying an extra fee of 5 cents.
